PROVO CITY, UTAH

Territorial Democratic Platform Adopted at the State Convention.

The democratic party of Utah in convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism and justice of the people—standing upon the constitution as a foundation and limitation of the powers of the government as well as the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen—congratulate the territory—now soon to be a state—on the assured success of the policy adopted by the national organization as laid down in all its platforms.
For the democracy of the entire territory we reaffirm our faith in the permanence of federal union and our devotion to the constitution and the laws; and declare as cardinal doctrines of democracy:

First—Absolute acquiescence in the will of the majority as a vital principle of the democratic party.
Second—Total separation of church and state for the sake alike of civil and religious liberty.
Third—The liberty of the individual untrammelled by compulsory laws.
Fourth—Support by the state of the public schools.
Fifth—The supremacy of the civil over the military power.
Sixth—Exact equality of all persons before the law.
Seventh—The right to a free ballot—the right preservative of all other rights.
Eighth—That our democratic party is the friend of the laboring man in every avocation of life, and will protect his interest alike against the aggressions of monopoly as well as the commune.

We believe the restoration of the money of the constitution is now the paramount issue before the country, and insist that their respective positions upon the question in order that the voters may intelligently express their preference. We therefore declare our selves in favor of the immediate restoration of the free and unlimited coinage of gold and silver at the present legal ratio of 16 to 1, as such coinage existed prior to 1873, without waiting for the aid or consent of any other nation. Gold and silver coin to be a full and legal tender for all debts public and private.

We denounce the republican party for the demonization of silver in 1873 and for its repeated acts of hostility toward its remonetization.
We call attention to the fact that the country was in the throes of a financial panic when the democratic administration assumed control in 1893, and we congratulate the people upon the approaching reign of prosperity as a result of a democratic reform of the tariff; and also to the fact that factories, foundries and mills have resumed work since the repeal of the McKinley law, and to the constantly advancing wages of workmen in almost every industry.

We again express our hearty appreciation of the democratic congress and president in providing an enabling act by virtue of which Utah is about to assume its position as a sovereign state.

We commend the action of the democratic members of the constitutional convention in surrounding the taxing and revenue-raising power of the state by such restrictions and limitations as to preclude any squandering of public property in aid of private enterprises, and to confine the expenses of carrying on the public business within proper limits of economy, despite the almost unanimous opposition of a republican majority. And we favor the adoption of the proposed constitution.

We congratulate the women of Utah upon their admission to equal political rights with men under the provisions of the constitution proposed, and the democratic party for the earnest and able support of that measure by its representatives in the constitutional convention.

We denounce as false the charge that the democratic party of Utah has been guilty of stuffing ballot boxes or other election frauds, and condemn the republican party for its unwarranted and libelous attack upon the majority of the Utah commission, and deplore the lack of principle shown by its attempt without any evidence and for partisan purposes to besmirch the character of honorable citizens.

ASYLUM PATIENTS

Must Commitments Bear Seal of Probate Court?

QUESTION NOT DECIDED.

It Was Discussed Pro and Con This Forenoon—Stevenson Gets Seven Months in the Penitentiary—Other Business in the First District Court.

When the First District court opened this morning County Attorney Whittemore of Salt Lake county was there towering in physical height but not nearly so high as those about him in mental height. The mandamus proceedings brought by him against the territorial insane asylum, were to be heard. In behalf of Dr. Pike and in support of his action in refusing to accept any person into the asylum unless the commitment bears the imprint of the seal of the probate court of the county from which that person is sent, E. A. Wedgwood Esquire argued before the court.

Whittemore argued that the statutes constitute the probate judge of a county a commissioner or court separate and apart from the county or probate court to try and adjudicate insane cases, and without a clerk. Therefore a county clerk has no connection with these cases and cannot be required to place the imprint of the county seal, of which he is keeper, upon the commitment papers. The probate judge's certification is all that is necessary. It was a matter solely of legislative will, and if the legislature so desired it could confer upon any officer it saw fit this power. Mr. Whittemore contended that the legislature had conferred such power on probate judges separate and apart from their other duties as probate judges and separate and apart from their duties as presiding officers of the county court. I will not attempt to say whether or not it was right or wrong or the best policy or the worst policy for the legislature to do this. It had done it and it was now a matter of old law and the arguments counsel made against his stand were excellent arguments that might have great weight before the legislature but they applied not to the case at bar.

Mr. Wedgwood argued that Whittemore's construction of the statutes is fallacious. That no such power is given a probate judge by the statutes. That all of his official doings are doings of the probate court and must be made of record to be binding and lawful. That the asylum must have the record of the proceedings of a commitment of a patient certified to by the clerk and bearing the imprint of the seal of the court, which can be placed there properly only by the clerk of the court. In his argument Mr. Wedgwood very lucidly explained why this is necessary. If all that is necessary to commit a person to the asylum is that a blank form shall be procured, filled up and signed by one man, any designing person might get one of these blanks by stealth or have them printed by the press, fill them out and sign a fictitious or real name as probate judge and thus railroad a sane person into the asylum and thus commit him to our asylum, which although it is a model asylum well kept and treats its patients most humanely would prove to a sane person placed there by fraud of designing enemies a living grave, a perfect hell on earth. Every ninety, every technicality of the law should be given full force to prevent the commission of any such horrible crime as this. The clerk is a sworn officer, the seal of his court is in his sacred possession and it cannot well be gotten at by designing people.

Many other arguments were used. The judge remarked that he agreed with Mr. Whittemore that the legislature had power to legislate the power of the court.

to try and adjudicate insane cases into the hands of any one man if it so happened that it had done so he was not prepared to say. To make an intelligent ruling it would be necessary to read the whole statute on insanity and arrive at an understanding of the system of the enactment and the intent of the legislature. This he would endeavor to do and took the matter under advisement.

OTHER BUSINESS OF COURT.

The jury in the case of Thomas Cloward vs. John M. and Charles Cloward, having heard all the evidence last evening, were charged by the court and retired.

The contention is that Charles and John M. Cloward did on April 20th last tear down and destroy a wire fence, by breaking posts, etc., that had been put up by their brother. Defendants claimed the fence was erected on a public highway. The jury found for plaintiff and awarded him the amount of damage prayed for, $15.00.

The grand jury returned 1 U. S. and 4 territorial indictments and reported the following cases ignored: People vs. Ephraim Mulliner, burglary; vs. Jas. Conners, grand larceny; vs. Jas. Shail, poisoning milk with intent to kill; vs. G. G. M. Velle, libel; vs. J. W. Gibbs, larceny.

James Stevenson of this city pleaded guilty to having committed adultery with one Mary Honey. He was sentenced to seven months in the penitentiary.

The case of Samuel E. Bunnell vs. R. G. W. Ry. company on appeal from Commissioner Milner's court, to recover $35.00 value of cow killed near Geneva on June 7th last was tried this morning. Jury found for plaintiff awarding damages at $30.00.

Case on trial is another case against the railway company brought by R. H. Thompson who on July 25, 1894, at Eureka collided with a train and sustained severe injuries to recover $15,200.00 for the damages sustained.

Funeral of G. A. R. Comrade Barrett. HEADQUARTERS W. T. SHERMAN POST, No. 6, DEPT. OF UTAH, G. A. R., SEPTEMBER 17, 1895.

Special Order No. 3.

The death of Comrade M. J. Barrett, senior vice commander of the department of Utah, and officer of the day of this Post is hereby announced.

Comrades of this Post will assemble at the Post room on Thursday, September 19, 1895, 9:30 a. m. All comrades as near as may be will wear the G. A. R. uniform, memorial badges and white gloves. The officers will wear side arms draped as required by the regulations.

The Post will march to the residence of the late comrade and escort the remains to the Third Ward meeting-house where appropriate services will be held at 11:00 a. m. After services are held, the Post will take charge of the funeral ceremony, proceeding to the cemetery where the usual exercises of the G. A. R. will take place.

Lieutenant Colonel J. H. Denboller of the Utah National guards, is requested to furnish an escort from the forces under his command, which escort will take position on the left of the G. A. R. in reverse order, which will place them in the advance.

All old soldiers, military orders or associations of every kind are invited to participate.

All the comrades of this Post are expected to be present and pay the last tribute of respect to the memory of our deceased comrade.

By order A. Saxe, Commander, J. H. WILLIAMS, Adjutant.

PLAYED WITH THE BULL'S HEAD.

The Penalties Attached to a Hand in Poker Held Against Five Kings.

Some varieties of cards have the picture of a bull's head upon the fifty-third card, which is known as the "joker," and largely affected by progressive encephalopathy when they are working assiduously for plated watch chains and cotton lace collars. It is seldom used in a game of poker, but in some sections it is left in the deck upon such occasions, and when a man holds it he is at liberty to give it the same value as any other card in his hand. The other night a party of jovial spirits sat down to while away a few hours at the seductive pastime, and when some one asked what kind of poker should be played another suggested that "every thing should go." In the parlance of poker this means a great deal. A player can cheat to his heart's content provided he is not discovered, and as all the players were equally well equipped with tricks the proposition was acceded to.

During the game one of the players excused himself for a moment on some pretext, and when he returned he found the person who dealt them would receive four aces, while the man to his left would get four kings. In his hurry he failed to remove the bull's head. Returning to the room, he took his seat, and winking to the man next to him, whose deal it happened to be, he deftly slipped him the "cold deck." The dealer, having confidence in his friend, took the pack and dealt out the hands. Of course he got the four aces. The betting was confined to him and the man to his left, and at last, when each had his cash and all his worldly possessions in the way of jewelry and wearing apparel staked on the result, the hands were called.

The dealer gladly announced the proprietorship of four aces and reached out for the plunder. The other man stopped him instantly. "Why, you can't beat four aces!" ejaculated the dealer.

"Oh, yes, I can," said his opponent. "I've got four kings and the bull's head, and that makes five. That means that I take the pot and all the rest of your clothes, and that every time I meet you on the street in the next six months you'll have to give me a $5 bill."

Then the game broke up.—Washington Post.
